The May-June issue of the INTERNATIONAL BULLETIN was printed and ready for distribution on 18 June. The July issue has been delivered to Logistics and was promised for 22 July delivery. Cartoons appearing in the June issue were accepted by the PF Staff for use on a cover sheet for the PF notes to the Director.

Printing of the Summer 1958, Issue No. 4-5, of the PROLOGUE magazine was completed on 27 June.

3. Mailing Operations. Approximately 4400 copies of the Ukrainian language INTERNATIONAL BULLETIN were mailed into the Soviet Ukraine from 9 countries during the month of June. Mailing of the INTERNATIONAL BULLETIN continued into the Ukraine via contacts established in Poland.

4. Brussels Fair. Three Ukrainians from Poland with whom the ARCADONARIUS have been maintaining contact via correspondence are expected at the Fair. It is expected that ARCADONARIUS-27 will be able to meet with these individuals. If they prove of operational interest, Munich or Frankfurt may be asked to supply a case officer with Ukrainian operations experience to sit in on the conferences with these individuals.

5. Other activities. ARCADONARIUS-27 will participate in the 10th Annual Conference on American Foreign Policy at Colgate University in Hamilton, New York, during the week of 1 July 1958.

Evaluation of Effectiveness

The Soviet press continues to be disturbed by Ukrainian emigre nationalist activities. The following are 2 examples that point up the fact that the emigre activities are being monitored by and obviously do cause the Soviets some concern since they find it necessary to counter them.

1. The LITERATURNAYA KRYVKA of 3 June 1958 (pg. 3) attacks the ARCADONARIUS newspaper PROLOGUE, published in Munich, because the author of an article published by it stated that Ukrainian poetry has no chance of free development in the Soviet Ukraine.

2. The satirical magazine PRIGLYBYE (No. 9, May 1958 issue, pg. 3), attacks Ukrainian radio broadcasts from the Vatican.
